We are again under obligations to the Adams Express, through FRANK NEELEY, for late Louisville papers ahead of the mail.

We learn that another Abolitionist was warned the other evening to settle up worth, Robt. H. Gardner, R. C. McNairy and his business here and leave for some country where he will find his sentiments more in accordance with those of the people. We have no use for men of Abolition opinions in this community, and they ought to leave. But we have many citizens of Northern birth in our midst who are as loyal to the South as the best of us, and care should be taken that none of these should be unjustly suspected or interfered with. In fact it is very easy in times like these to do injustice to men who are with us heart and | Chair. soul in this struggle, and great discretion and care should be exercised.

The Messrs. HENDERSON, the enterprising Plumbers and dealers in Gas Fixtures on Deaderick street, announce that they have ten thousand pounds of lead which our military companies can have in the shape of bullets, free of charge, by leaving their moulds at their establishment. They have a large stock of leaden pipe, which will be made into bullets if it is needed. Good for the Messrs. HENDERSON.

The meeting of citizens of the Fifth Ward. called for Tuesday night, was postponed on account of the want of a suitable room. It will be held to-night (Thursday) at the Carpenter Shop of Coleman & Spain, High street, between Church and Broad. It is contemplated to organize a Home Guard.

At a meeting of the old Shelby Guards, held last night, for the purpose of reorganizing for service, it was unanimously adopted that the Company shall be named the Nashville Shelby Dragoons. Capt. W. L. Horn was unanimously elected Captain, and J. G. CARPER was elected Bugler. All members of the old Guard, who desire to enroll their names can do so at two o'clock today and at 74 o'clock to-night.

We understand that our patriotic fei low-citizen, M. BURNS, Market street, is sellicg goods in his line, for war purposes, at cost. There are few men in the commanity more liberal than he.

The general market remains quiet, with but little doing in the leading articles of trade. Flour is dull, with a very small demand for shipping, but the demand for home consumption is good. We quote at $5 @$6 50 for superfine to choice family grades. Wheat is quiet, with but little disposition on the part of millers and dealers to operate. Corn is dull, and prices are lower. We quote shelled at 45c, sacks included, Groceries are quiet, with but a small demand for the home trade.
